MUD RUNNERS HAVE A DAY.

RAIN AT WASHINGTON SLOWS THE TRACK BUT FAVORITES WIN.

The Squire Easily Successful-Flying Virginian's Steeplechase - Ardri Runs Away from Countermand.

Washington, D. C., November 18 .- The rain which commenced last night and continued all day made the track very heavy and muddy and the mud horses had the best of it in all six races. A large number of turf followers came over from New York. but there was not as much money in sight as there was Saturday and some of the bookmakers did not take up their places on the lawn today, only seventy-one laying prices this afternoon. Among the more prominent arrivals from the metropolis were Orlando Jones, W. Beverley and Thomas Welsh. The latter came over to see his colt The Squire qualify for the Grand Consolation Saturday, which he did when he won the third race over the Columbia Course in a canter from fairly good opponents.

Sanguine, always partial to heavy going, found the track to his liking in the first race and wor after running a splendid race at a good price, being as high as 5 to 1 part of the time.

In the second race, which was a selling handicap steeplechasers, Flying Virginian proved much the best of the starters and set the pace throughout to finish cantering under the faultless handling of Mr. Taylor. Yama Christy, well favored by the soft going, fenced well and was able to hold second place safe throughout the last mile.

The Squire only cantered through the mud to win the third race and his well-known prowess in the going justified the short price of 1 to 2, which was eagerly taken by the many admirers of the Prince of Melbourne gelding and his price at post time was 1 to 3. The Shaughraun, which made his first start at Aqueduct Friday, was well backed for place and show and never gave his backers a moof suspense during the running of the race.

Ardri was immeasurably best in the fourth race. Greatly favored by track conditions and first to break, he soon had a commanding lead and won eased up to a canter. Countermand tired in the final drive, permitting Saltram, which came with a rush, to take second place in the last stride. Countermand was favorite in the closing betting and was well thought of for the big race Saturday. but it is not thought that he will start after his poor showing today. The others were distant trail-Tee Tick being the only one to show much speed in any part of the running.

The fifth race was but a canter for Monacodor and he was in front from the rising of the barrier to the finish, followed several lengths back by that old mudlark Graziallo, which was never threatened for second place.

The Texas turfman, Sam Lazarus, had much the best horse in Right Royal for the last race. black horse took the lead at the start and only cantered through the stretch, but pulled up very Ocean Spray had no trouble in taking see ond place from the tiring Banker, which showed lameness after the race, but that is a chronic ailment with him and he will probably be a good show to the best advantage in some of the longdistance races next week.

BOTH NEW ORLEANS TRACKS READY.

Improvements Complete and Good Horses Arriving Daily from New York.

New Orleans, La., November 18 .- The work of reconstructing the Fair Grounds is rapidly reaching completion and but few minor details remain for the workmen to finish. On opening day it will take rank with any racing plant in the country.

City Park track has also been spruced up and turf patrons will find that their comfort has amply been cared for. Some trepidation is being felt over the stringency of ready money, but it is thought that the sport will in no way suffer by this, as most of the race following will consist of northerners, and they will probably put enough ready cash into circulation to carry through for some time, or until available cash can be had from the local banks and other similar institutions away from here. There is some talk that clearing house certificates will also be accepted by the bookmakers, but conditionally that the bettor accepts clearing house certificates as payment should he present a winning ticket.

today include R. A. Smith, with seven head, including Maxnar, Lord Stanhope, Green Seal; P. Mayberry's string, including Quinn Brady and Robin Hood, which were stabled at City Park. John Schorr, who is handling M. H. Tichenor's horses, brought among others, Good Luck and Eddie Ware; Al Hamel will try for purses with Wes, a frequent winner. His crack filly, Notasulga, will not be seen in action this winter, having been turned out at Sheepshead Bay. Archie Zimmer's string of eighteen head came direct from New York and are quartered at the Fair Grounds.

Robert Walden's sixteen from Baltimore, came here without mishap.

Howard Oots came from Lexington with fourteen and J. H. Baker is expected tonight with twelve. Inauguration.

FAVORITES UNLUCKY AT OAKLAND Prince of Castile and Sugarmaid the Only Ones to Score.

Oakland, Cal., November 18 .- A procession of outsiders scored in succession at Oakland today, a break in the sequence not materializing until the fifth race, when an odds-on favorite in Prince of Castile, came along and relieved the situation and with the subsequent victory of Sugarmaid, another heavily backed choice, enabled the speculatively inclined public to pull itself out of acute financial distress at the last moment.

"Tiny" Buxton showed to advantage on his brother's crack mare Sugarmaid, which was making her local debut of this season and incidentally cleaned up something like $5,000 in wagers for the family coffers. The closing was the only race on the card with any pretension to good class in its contestants and it developed into a spectacular and keenly contested struggle and the best horse won. The obscurely bred Sugarmaid, by Salvado, out of Saccharoid, recently acquired for $5,000 by her pres ent owners, is one of the fastest race mares ever developed on the Pacific coast.

Today's racing began with a victory for a 30 to 1 chance, Wahoo. Then E. Lynch, one of the promising of the local lightweight jockey division by dint of superior saddle work, landed Annie H. and Blanche C. in front, quoted at 7 to 1 each in the betting. With the failure of the odds-on favorite, Orchan, to get away in the fourth, Storma successfully spreadeagled her eleven opponents. Guy Burns, the present jockey idol, had only two mounts during the afternoon. He was unplaced with the solitary Carman representative on the program. Friar of Elgin, in the opening race for two-yearolds, and finished a close third on Cloudlight in the

Matt Dooley, former betting commissioner for R. F. Carman, left for the east last Sunday evening. It is rumored that his object in going to New York at the present juncture is to testify at the George Boles investigation. Jockey W. Knapp was at the race track today for the first time since his arrival from New York. Knapp said that he knew nothing regarding the George Boles scandal, had not received any intimation from official sources that he was mixed up with it in any way, and would be glad to return to New York if wanted and would testify freely as to what he knew, providing the Jockey Club defrayed the expenses of the journey

THINKS WELL OF HESSIAN.

New York, November 18 .- Trainer A. J. Joyner believes that his greatly improved colt, Hessian, will prove a high-class three-year-old and the colt will not be declared from any of his engagements for next season. Hessian is one of the largest youngsters in training. He stands all of sixteen hands one inch on his plates and he has the propor tions of an equine Colossus. Colonial, the dam of this big brown colt, is one of the most highly prized of J. B. Haggin's mares. She was a daughter of the Musket horse Trenton-Thankful Blossom, by Paradox. Her second dam was The Apple, by Hermit and her third dam was Black Star, by Fore runner.

The Apple was the dam of the filly One-I-Love which won the Great Eastern Handicap of 1895 under the silks of the late Colonel William P. Thompson. One-I-Love is now at General Stephen Sanford's Hurricana Farm. The up-state breeder thinks pretty well of her. Hessian is engaged in the principal three-year-old stakes to be run next season and Joyner believes he will go any distance.

Winn; vice-president, Edward Corrigan; secretary, W. J. McAllister; treasurer, W. J. O'Brien.

HILDRETH'S MUCH-FEARED HOODOO.

Of a well-known mental feature of Sam Hildreth Oakland dispatch says: "None so superstitious as Hildreth, he still holds an interdiction over all 'Sam' believes in the kodak hoodoo. He wouldn't have his picture taken for anything No Mohammedan is more scrupulous in this respect than the trainer of the 'Big Tent Stable' of the On the opening day several newspaper snapshot experts attempted to get within range of Hildreth and his horses, but they didn't succeed. He's been known to smash a $125 camera and then ask the owner for the bill rather than have a picture taken."

MAY NOT PATRONIZE OAKLAND.

It is said that C. E. Durnell will race his entire stable at New Orleans after the first of the year and will not ship his horses in New York to Oakland, sending them to New Orleans and bringing the fifteen he now has at Oakland to the Crescent City tracks shortly after the first of the year, and remain there until the close of the winter season. E. Dugan will go with Durnell, and if the report that jockey will undoubtedly be the riding attraction at New Orleans this winter instead of sharing that honor with Walter Miller at Oakland.

JOCKEYS RETURNED FROM ABROAD

New York, November 18.—Six American jockeys who have been riding in Europe during the summer eturned yesterday on the Kaiser Wilhelm. The sextet were Tommy Burns, Harry Birkenruth, W. J. Gannon, H. Lewis and the two Tarals.

SANTA ANITA ENTRIES NUMEROUS.

Los Angeles, Cal., November 13.-That the Lo Angeles Racing Association will have no difficulty in filling the different stakes to be run at the Santa Anita track was evidenced this morning when Secretary Randle received from owners at Oakland hundred entries to the different events Jack Atkin, who has been representing the asso ciation at Oakland, has been working like a beave in the interest of the new track and, in a letter to Secretary Randle, Atkin reports that more tries will reach here from the northern track to

In his letter to Secretary Randle, Mr. Afkin re lively interest among the Oakland horse men in the new track, and states that a large number of horses will be shipped from Oakland to Santa Anita in time for the opening. He also in his letter points out the advisability of the construction of additional stalls at Arcadia, fearing that the present capacity of 660 stalls will prove insufficient. Acting on this hint Manager Gardner today gave orders for the construction of 100 more stalls

The entries to the stakes which closed yesterday are by far the largest ever made at any meeting ever held in Los Angeles. There are many distant points to be heard from yet, however, and it is expected that all entries from these places wil here by November 18.

Among the late entries received are: J. S. Haw kins' Wing Ting, entered in three stakes. Other late entries are H. Mack's Love of Gold, in three stakes; J. T. Robbins' Fair Fagot in several stakes W. St. Vincent's J. C. Clem; R. H. Harris' Wherewithal; R. H. Hoag's Logistilla; Ed Trotter's Peter Sterling; O. T. Johnson's Sainwa; H. G. Bedwell's

Los Angeleno, Reservation, Legatee and Judge Nelson; R. Friedman's Fisher Boy; Oakwood Stock Ranch's Rey Hindoo and Tim Payne, all entered in several stakes. C. C. McCafferty has Dr. Leggo entered in the Norfolk Handicap. The following owners have also made entries: J. D. Millin, F. J. Neil, Peter Zimmer and W. P. Magrane.

J. W. Young got in from Latonia yesterday with his string and the string of Ed Alvey is expected tomorrow. Alvey is briging Colonel Bob along with him. E. Martin will do the riding for the Pasadena Stable, owned by Dick Williams. Martin did fairly well at Latonia and Williams considers be has a boy who will make a name for himself on the coast. George Rose will be back from Oakland Thursday and will immediately give all his attention to the completion of arrangements for the ppening. The bookmakers who will do business at the new track are beginning to arrive. Robert Chambers, of the firm of Chambers & Walker, already installed in his cottage at Hollywood, Mr. Chambers will have a book at the forthcoming meeting. H. L. Jones, who operated at Ascot the two seasons, is already on the ground as is also Mose Raphael. Charlie Bowman will be here in a few days and will bring several layers from Latonia who have never operated on the coast.

ARCADIA NO MONTE CARLO.

Los Angeles, Cal., November 14.-The rumors that there would be all kinds of gambling permitted in the little town of Arcadia after the race meeting opened has been given a quietus by Mr. Baldwin who owns the town site. In an interview this morn ing he said: "Those who have entertained an that Arcadia is to be turned into a modern Monte Carlo when racing begins are certainly going to be disappointed.

"There has been much talk along those lines by those who do not know anything about the matter, but I want it distinctly understood that nothing of the kind will be permitted. We will see to it that Arcadia is properly policed, and the best order possible will be maintained at all times. The police force will be increased as fast as it is found to require increasing, and the town will be a modern and orderly little city.

"No more saloon licenses will be granted, disreputable houses will be permitted, disreputable characters will not be harbored within the limits of the town, and gambling at faro, roulette and in other forms will be prohibited. We have a nice little calaboose, and rowdies and crooks will find it open at all hours of the day and night. Arcadia shall be a law-abiding community and the establishment of the race track shall not operate to make it a town of crooks, gamblers and disreputable per

"We are about to realize our dream of a race track for the town, and recognize the fact that the institution is to be one of the best advertisements possible to be had for the town. The track will be one of the finest in the world and everything must be first-class. With a model little city as must be first-class. With a model little city as its location we expect each to be an advantage to each other, which could not be if there was anything in the Monte Carlo talk."

OUR THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

The number of winners ridden by the jockeys who were riding last week is fairly indicative of their relative standing for good work in the saddle during the season. Walter Miller and E. Dugan would be expected to lead the list with four each, but Delaby and Notter have the same number winners, which goes to show that they are apt to be among the top-notchers next year. The Oak-land meeting has given Sandy and Moreland an opportunity to be among those riding winners during the week, each having piloted three first under the wire. Following is the standing of the twenty leading jockeys from January 1 to and including the races of last Saturday:
